Creating Experiences to Last a Lifetime

“Travefy allows me to set up a dynamic, professional itinerary in a fraction of the time it took cutting and pasting from Word documents and PDF’s.”

- Miki Taylor, Founder - Taylor & Co. Travel

Miki's Story

Taylor & Co Travel is the premier travel agency offering exclusive “Tailored” all-inclusive travel experiences specializing in corporate, luxury, destination weddings, honeymoons, family leisure, and more. When founder of Taylor & Co, Miki Taylor, first started using Travefy Professional in October 2015, she was looking for an easy platform to create proposals and quotes for clients.

Miki says, “I was tired of wasting time using customized Word templates and updating PDF documents to create a dynamic presentation for my clients when I sent them a quote. I wanted something to make them feel like they were actually at the destination.”

“The time that I save in a day utilizing Travefy allows me to work on other aspects of my business such as social media marketing, sales, and client follow ups.

It’s amazing how much more I can get accomplished in a day now,” raves Miki. When one of Miki’s received their Travefy itinerary for Cape Town, Africa, they sent an email back that said, “This is the best way I have ever received trip details!”

Miki says, “Recommending Travefy is easy, it’s a platform that allows you to be efficient while creating dynamic, professional quotes for your clients, easily track conversations with any planning adjustments and turn that quote into an interactive itinerary after the trip is booked.”

Corporate Travel Simplified

“Travefy Professional allows me to bring all of the confirmations into one place, which makes it much easier on the traveler.”

- Brandon Gries, Event & Travel Coordinator - Hudl

Brandon's Story

Brandon Gries is the travel coordinator for Hudl, an online sports video editing company with five primary offices worldwide and over 450 employees. With so many offices and employees, Brandon needed a way to easily coordinate office-to-office travel for remote employees, company retreats, sport clinics, conventions, and more.

Brandon began using Travefy in 2014, “I needed an automated itinerary tool to organize a huge amount of trade show and clinic travel.” Brandon says, “I was previously manually typing out itineraries. I had quick parts saved or would use old emails with similar trips, but it was still very time consuming.”

With Travefy Professional, Brandon found relief in quickly adding information to itineraries by utilizing the email confirmation forwarding feature. “Manually typing out flight and hotel confirmations was a major headache,” Brandon says.

Travefy helps keep Brandon and Hudl organized, details and connected. “I would recommend Travefy because I like to pull together all the different aspects of a trip and get them into one place. We book through Concur (via our travel agent), but most of our lodging is booked directly with the hotel or Airbnb. Travefy Professional allows me to bring all the confirmations into one place, which makes it much easier on the traveler.”
