

What date did Disneyland open its doors?

A: July 17, 1955

This airline was established in 1919, making it the oldest airline in the world. What is it?

A: KLM Royal Dutch Airlines

Zanzibar is an island off of which country?

A: Tanzania

What was the first national park in the United States?

A: Yellowstone

The popular TV show Lost was filmed on this Hawaiian island...

A: Oahu

If you were visiting Ferrari World, where would you be?

A: Abu Dhabi

In which country was the Panama hat made?

A: Ecuador

The Boeing factory in Everett is located in which state?

A: Washington

What is the name of the first travel agency and where did it originate?

A: Thomas Cook, England

With 221,800 islands, this country is estimated to have the most islands in the world!

A: Sweden

What does GDS stand for?

A: Global Distribution System

What is the only cruise line that has a home port in Hawaii?

A: Norwegian

What is the name of this ship?

A: Pride of America

What is the most common thing people forget to pack?

A: Phone Charger

Which country are the Canary Islands part of?

A: Spain

Which ride is at every Disney park?

A: Dumbo the Flying Elephant

Christmas Island is a territory of...

A: Australia

Which animal is NOT part of Africa's "Big Five"?

A: Giraffe

The Galapagos Islands are part of which country?

A: Ecuador

Which airline has the largest fleet size?

A: American Airlines

What is the brightest city on earth?

A: Las Vegas

The Eurostar connects which countries?

A: UK, France, Belgium, Netherlands

Which country has the most golf courses per capita?

A: Bermuda

Which cruise ship is the largest and longest?

A: Royal Caribbean's Harmony of the Seas

With a population of 37 million, which is the largest city in the world?

A: Tokyo

Quiz created by Travefy for Travefy Training Camp Week 2022 (Created March 2022)